

Syria: Forcibly Disappeared Human Rights Lawyer Khalil Maatouk is Awarded

has been awarded by Lawyers for Lawyers (L4L) for his Khalil Maatouk. After almost 1000 days of secret detention, prominent Syrian lawyer and human rights activist relentless human rights work and activism following his nomination by EMHRN.

The award is attributed every two years by the Dutch organisation to reward “lawyers who promote the rule of law and human rights in an exceptional way.”

. moving speech Raneem Maatouk received the award in Amsterdam on her father’s behalf and delivered a

For more than 20 years, Maatouk had provided legal assistance to political opponents, human rights activists, journalists and peaceful protestors unfairly tried before Syrian military and civilian courts. Following the Syrian uprising in 2011, Maatouk continued to do so until he was arrested at a government military checkpoint on 2 October 2012.

The Syrian government continues to deny the detention of Khalil Maatouk. Neither his lawyers nor his family have been allowed to visit him despite his severe health situation and need of medical treatment.

by human rights groups, including EMHRN, urging the Syrian government to reveal the whereabouts of Maatouk and other lawyers calls The L4L award echoes repeated detained by Syrian security forces. Successive letters to the General Attorney and the head of the Syrian Bar Association urging them to intervene urgently to reveal the fate of Maatouk were met with silence.

The passivity of the Syrian Bar Association in the face of brutal measures deployed by the Syrian governments to eliminate lawyers committed to human rights and the rule of “The bar association has a duty to protect lawyers in the practice of their profession” Said Michel Tubiana, EMHRN president. “ law is unacceptable

The Network reiterates its calls on the Syrian authorities to disclose the whereabouts of Maatouk and release him immediately.